Qualis

The Quest for Excellence

Vol. No. 1 2015-16

ST. PAUL'S COLLEGE ACCREDITED WITH NAAC 'A' GRADE

The NAAC Peer team members handing over the assessment report to the College Principal

St. Paul's College, Kalamassery is basking in the glory of a well deserved achievement-the award of an 'A' grade (with grade point 3.14) by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council in the third cycle.

The NAAC Peer team with the IQAC coordinator, Manager, Principal and NAAC Co-ordinator.

Peer team members in the Principal's Office

In the exhibition Hall In the NCC Office

Orientation Program for Newly Joined Students on 1/06/2015

Resource Person: Rev. Fr. Antony Lijo Odathakal, Archdiocese of Verapoly

Every year Orientation programmes are arranged for the newly joined students to enable them a smooth entry into the programmes they enrolled for. A briefing on the courses, various clubs and student support programmes are meant to boost the confidence of beginners. Students were also given guidance on the future career opportunities and also about the activities of the career cell. An orientation class was also arranged for parents to equip them to support their children to embark on a successful academic career.

One Day Programme on Fr. Raphael Olattupuram Memorial Lecture series: Promotion of Entrepreneurship Opportunities in Campus on 04/09/2015

Resource Person: Dr. M. C. Dileepkumar, Vice Chancellor, Sree Sankaracharya Sanskrit University, Kalady

The fifth lecture of the Fr Raphael Ollattupuram Memorial Lecture Series Promotion of Entrepreneurship Opportunities in Campus was organized by the IQAC, St Paul's College, on the 4th of September, 2015. The lecture series, primarily intended for the staff of the College, was instituted in memory of the late Fr Raphael Olattupuram, former Principal and Manager. This year, the IQAC invited Dr DileepKumar M C, Vice Chancellor, Sree Sankaracharya Sanskrit University, Kalady, to speak on 'Promotion of Entrepreneurship Opportunities in Campus'. In a brief inaugural ceremony presided over by the Manager, Rev. Fr. Felix Chakkalakal, Dr. Edwin Xavier, Principal, welcomed the gathering and

Dr. Reena J Andrews, Convenor, IQAC, paid tribute to Fr. Raphael Olattupuram, who firmly believed in the relevance of ethics and humaneness in higher education. Dr. Asha E Thomas, faculty member, Dept. of Commerce, introduced the chief guest. Dr Dileep Kumar, a skilled orator, spoke eloquently, underlining the need to rise above the ordinary, and to imbibe the spirit of perseverance, dedication and unity to ensure that St. Paul's College would always be a cut above the rest. Dr. V.J. Peter, Vice Principal, proposed the vote of thanks.

One Day Programme on Orientation for Final Year Students on 05/10/2015

Resource Person: Mr. Varghese George, ASAP Programme Manager

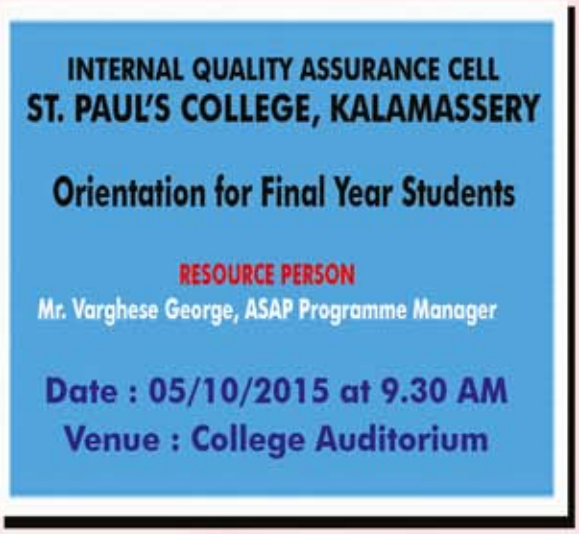
The IQAC organised a career orientation talk for final year graduate and post graduate students of the College. Mr. Varghese George, ASAP Programme Manager was the speaker. Communicative English Trainer (CET) is the new job role (NSQF Level 4) developed by ASAP to cater to the needs of the industry for communicative English trainers. This job role concentrates mainly on four main focus areas of communication trainers viz; Language Skills, Trainer Skills, Soft Skills and ICT Skills. He motivated the students to attend the CET interview that was being conducted by ASAP. Selected candidates will be eligible to attend the 21-day training camp, on the successful completion of which, they will be certified and posted as Communicative English Trainers.



ASAP CET (Communicative English Trainer) Zonal Interview at St. Pauls College on 11/03/2016

Resource Person: Prof. Anjana Sankar, Master trainer, ASAP and Associate Professor, Sree Sankara College, Kalady and Mr. Varghese George, ASAP Programme Manager
The IQAC took the initiative to facilitate the ASAP CET (Communicative English Trainer) Interview at St. Pauls College on 11th March 2016. Prof. Anjana Sankar, Master trainer, ASAP and Associate Professor, Sree Sankara College, Kalady and Mr. Varghese George, ASAP Programme Manager conducted the interview. A total of 66 students from various colleges registered for the event. 58 students attended the first round of group discussion conducted in 6 batches. After the first round a total of 39 students were short listed for the personal round. 37 students were shortlisted for the 21 days residential camp that was scheduled during the month of April 2016 to June 2016 at various ASAP TPI institutions.