

ST. PAUL'S COLLEGE, KALAMASSERY-

MHRD PROJECT UNNAT BHARAT ABHIYAN (UBA)

Villages adopted by the St.Paul's College, Kalamassery under the MHRD flagship project UNNAT BHARAT ABHIYAN (UBA) are:

1. Marampilly (CT)
2. Pallippuram
3. Varapuzha (CT)
4. Mookkannoor
5. Kumbalangy (CT)

MOUs has been signed by the college with the authorities of these villages for the next 5 years and the activities initiated by the college includes:

- ✚ Digital Literacy for the Village Community
- ✚ Empowering women through entrepreneur skill development classes
- ✚ Awareness classes on drugs, health, conservation of energy and household waste management
- ✚ Awareness on water resource management
- ✚ Training program on value-added cleaning products
- ✚ Conducting science-oriented demonstration classes
- ✚ Career guidance classes for school and colleges students

The institution had already conducted an initial survey to understand the problems faced by these 5 villages. The survey was successfully completed due to active participation from village and panchayat authorities. During the Covid 19 pandemic, institution had also conducted the distribution of sanitizer to the village community. These sanitizers were manufactured by the Chemistry department of the institution.

Official inauguration of UBA program in St. Paul's College Kalamassery was conducted on 21 August 2019.
