No: of student participants	: 79

This class was organized by Maths Club in association with the Women Empowerment Cell and the programme was sponsored by KSWDC. The Human Rights and Gender Sensitisation programme promoted awareness and understanding of fundamental rights while fostering gender equality. The programme empowered the students to help build a more harmonious and equitable society enabling the students to respect and uphold the principles for human rights. The interactive sessions facilitated a broader perspective on human rights issues in the present era. Key topics mentioned in the talk were: History of Human Rights, Gender equality laws and fundamental rights. This class would be a step in the right direction.

Ms. Gayathri, II BSc Mathematics welcome the gathering and Ms. Sreekala introduced the speaker. Adv. Sabu K Varghese interacted with students for an hour and then on open session was there for the next 30 minutes. Audience asked their doubts and concerns related to human rights. Mr. Ramakanth, II BSc Mathematics proposed vote of thanks.

Benefits in terms of learning/skill/knowledge obtained: Maths Club in association with the Women Empowerment Cell of our college organized this session to create an awareness about the human rights and gender sensitisation among all in Maths Family. The students gained an overall knowledge of the rights and acts discussed. The interaction session was especially lively and well-appreciated.

Women Empowerment Cell in association with Department of Economics of St.Paul's College, Kalamassery had organised a special invited lecture on 'Law as a weapon in women's Everyday life'. Adv. Muhammed Ibrahim Abdulsamad, lawyer and legal consultant was the speaker.

Law can indeed be a powerful tool for women in their everyday lives, particularly in contexts where they face discrimination, harassment, or other challenges. Here are some ways in which law can serve as a weapon or a tool for empowerment for women. By leveraging the protections and opportunities afforded by the law, women can assert their rights, challenge injustices, and strive for equality and justice in their everyday lives. However, it's important to recognize that legal frameworks alone may not be sufficient to address deeply entrenched social, cultural, and economic inequalities, and broader efforts to promote gender equality and social change are also needed. Dr. Justine George and Dr. Poornima N were the coordinators.
